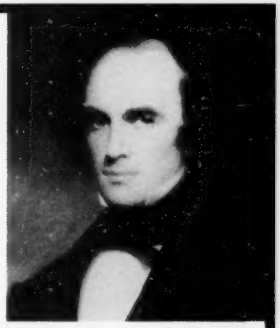
The Salem World of Nathaniel Hawthorne

Margaret B. Moore



"An outstanding work of scholarship that is also readable and even—time after time—entertaining.... It is certain to become the definitive biography of Hawthorne's Salem years."—Buford Jones

By tracing the influence of Salem on Hawthorne's writing, The Salem World of Nathaniel Hawthorne makes clear that Hawthorne not only was aware of his "own dear native place" but also drew upon it consciously and subconsciously in his work. 296 pages, $37.50
